

Notes by Kristy Davis ... The day was to focus on digital art and preservation in which cutting-edge issues would be discussed. He noted that the day would be broken into four areas: an overview of the topic of the digital preservation of digital art; case studies of preservation issues in digital art; emerging trends and things to consider in the future; and a discussion at the end. The conference was tweeted at: #preservedigitalart

{jcomments on}