

Excerpt from DPC Annual Report 2008-2009

Work has continued this year in digitising the BBC's audio and video collections. The technical quality of material transferred is assured through use of uncompressed file-formats (BWAV and MXF) and in quality checking the result of all ingest work. Long-term data storage has been explored – comparing the total cost of ownership of hard disk and robotic data tape solutions.