

The shortlist for the Digital Preservation Awards was announced at a reception in the House of Lords on Monday 8th October.

The shortlist is as follows:

For an outstanding contribution to teaching and communication in digital preservation in the last 2 years:

- The Digital Preservation Training Programme, University of London Computing Centre
- The Signal, Library of Congress
- Keeping Research Data Safe Project, Charles Beagrie Ltd and partners
- Digital Archaeology Exhibition, Story Worldwide Ltd

For an outstanding contribution to research and innovation in digital preservation in the last 2 years:

- Data Management Planning Toolkit, The Digital Curation Centre and partners
- PLANETS Preservation and Long-term Access through Networked Services, The Open Planets Foundation and partners
- TOTEM Trustworthy Online Technical Environment Metadata Registry, University of Portsmouth and partners
- The KEEP Emulation Framework, Koninklijke Bibliotheek (National Library of the Netherlands) and partners

For the most outstanding contribution to digital preservation in the last decade:

- The International Internet Preservation Consortium
- The National Archives for the PRONOM and DROID services
- The Archaeology Data Service at the University of York
- The PREMIS Preservation Metadata Working Group for the PREMIS Standard