

There are currently two posts available at the Department of Digital Humanities, King's College London: a Knowledge Transfer and Sustainability Manager and a Community of Practice Co-ordinator. Both posts are associated with the Presto4U initiative. Details below.

---

Knowledge Transfer and Sustainability Manager (Presto4U)

Position type: Full time, Fixed Term (18 months)

Closing Date: 29th May 2013

Salary: £31,330 plus £2323 London Allowance

Location: London

The Department of Digital Humanities, King's College London seeks an EU Knowledge Transfer & Sustainability Manager to deliver the PRESTO4U core deliverables on behalf of King's. PRESTO4U is a European Union project with the full title European Technology for Digital Audiovisual Media Preservation. The role will focus upon delivery of the technology and knowledge transfer from preservation research to the projects communities of practice.

The successful candidate for this position will have existing experience and knowledge of digital preservation and preferably knowledge and experience of the audiovisual industry and community. The candidate will need to be able to work to a very tight project schedule and have experience of working in projects with a both a knowledge transfer and technical focus.

For more details see: http://www.kcl.ac.uk/depsta/pertra/vacancy/external/pers\_detail.php?jobindex=13176

---

Community of Practice Co-ordinator (Presto4U)

Position type: Full time, Fixed Term (17 months)

Closing Date: 29th May 2013

Salary: Grade 5 - £26,264 plus £2323 London Allowance

Location: London

The Department of Digital Humanities, King's College London seeks an EU Community of Practice Co-ordinator to deliver the PRESTO4U core deliverables on behalf of King's. PRESTO4U is a European Union project with the full title European Technology for Digital Audiovisual Media Preservation. The post holder will create a Community of Practice for Learning and Teaching audiovisual media preservation, which will develop a body of knowledge on the status of digital preservation practice, outstanding problems and needs for access to research results.

The successful candidate for this position will have existing experience and knowledge of digital preservation and preferably knowledge and experience of the audiovisual industry and community. The candidate will need to be able to work to a very tight project schedule and have an understanding of working in projects with a technical focus but also the capability to build and maintain a Community of Practice (CoP) across subjects and national boundaries.

For more details see: http://www.kcl.ac.uk/depsta/pertra/vacancy/external/pers\_detail.php?jobindex=13177