

irms

The Information and Records Society

- * IRMS was formed in 1983
- * The leading body for information and records professionals in the UK
- * Annual Conference focused solely on RIM – this year 17-19 May, Celtic Manor Resort, Wales
- * Accreditation scheme offering professional recognition for members who work in records management, information management, information governance, knowledge management
- * Bulletin magazine bi-monthly publication

Student Benefits

- * Free membership for Students who are undertaking full time training for a recognised qualification in the records management field
- * Attendance at group meetings such as public sector group, Wales group, Scottish group, Ireland group, Midland group, SharePoint practitioners group, financial services group
- * Mentoring scheme with IRMS Fellows
- * IRMS Alison North new professional's award
- * Networking opportunities with information professionals

