let me guess...
chased out of the archives again?

archival object (ao) : a unit component of an archival collection at any level of arrangement / hierarchy eg: a single (folder, series, subseries) digital object (do) : a unit, digital surrogate with its archival description produced from a digitization process eg: a single (.jpg, .pdf, .tiff, .mp3, .mov)

Content Description

The accession consists of letters, notebooks, photographs and published research material related to K S Krishnan. K S Krishnan was an Indian physicist and scientific administrator. He was the co-discoverer of the Raman-scattering for which his mentor, C V Raman, received the Nobel Prize in Physics in 1930. He was associated with Dacca University, the Indian Association for the Cultivation of Science and Allahabad

Condition Description

The collection contains letters, account registers and notebooks written in iron gall ink. These documents are fragile and need to be handled with care.

Disposition

The collection draws from material related to K S Krishnan donated by Vijay Thiruvady, Krishnan's grandson and research material from DCV Mallik. Physical material was received on June 21st, 2023 by Venkat Srinivasan, Archives at NCBS.
