

Programme – Tuesday 18th November

0930 – Webinar opens
 0945 – Welcome and Introductions
 0950 – Second Keynote: David Rosenthal, Stanford University
 1035 – Brief Q&A
 1040 – Webinar closes
 1040 – Tea and coffee

Session 4:

Main auditorium	Dale Room	Franks room	Steel Room
Curation Costs Exchange 1100 – Introduction: Alex Thirifays, Danish National Archives & Luis Faria, KEEP Solutions 1120 – Invited response from prospective users: Simon Hodson, CODATA 1130 – Invited response from service providers: Kate Wittenberg, Portico 1140 – Discussion: chaired by Ron Dekker, NWO	1100 – Workshop 3: Shared preservation for archives, University of Hull	1100 – Workshop 4: Working together and growing together, nestor	1100 – Workshop 5: Preserving more than data -Tools demo, TIMBUS Project

Session 5:

Main auditorium	Dale room	Franks Room	Steel Room
Here comes the future 1200 – Technology tipping points: John Tilbury, Preservica 1220 – Delivering skills for the future: Sarah Higgins, University of Aberystwyth 1240 – Organisations: Marius Snyders, PRESTO Centre	Workshop 3 continues	Workshop 4 continues	Workshop 5 continues

1300 – Lunch

Session 6:

Main auditorium	Franks room	Dale Room
Policy & Planning challenges 1400 – Doing nothing, the Cost of Inaction: Chris Lacinak, AVPreserve 1420 – The fall’s gonna kill you - sensitivity matters: Tim Gollins, The National Archives/University of Glasgow 1440 – Deleting to Preserve: Approasial in the digital age - Simon Wilson, University of Hull 1500 – Is there a gold standard and does that matter?: Barbara Sierman, The Royal Library of the Netherlands 1520 – Roundtable discussion: chaired by William Kilbride, DPC	1400 – Workshop 6: Developing National Digital Preservation Infrastructure, NCDD	1400 – Workshop 7: Preservation Planning, Parliamentary Archives & friends

1600 – Tea and coffee
 1620 – Final Plenary and review of proceedings: Matthew Woollard, University of Essex
 1700 – Thanks and close