JPEG 2000 for the practitioner - a one-day seminar

Tuesday 16 November 2010
9am - 5pm
Wellcome Trust, 215 Euston Road, London, UK

Draft schedule:

09:00   Registration, coffee

10:00   Welcome, introduction

Christy Henshaw, Wellcome Library, Chair of JP2K-UK

Morning session Chair: William Kilbride, Executive Director, Digital Preservation Coalition

10:10   What did JPEG 2000 ever do for us?

Simon Tanner, Director, Kings Digital Consultancy Service

10:40   JPEG 2000 standardization - a pragmatic viewpoint

Richard Clark, UK head of delegation to JPEG and MD of Elysium Ltd.

11:10   JPEG 2000 profiles

Five ten-minute presentations moderated by Sean Martin, Head of Architecture and Development, British Library

12:10   IIPImage and OldMapsOnline

Petr Zabicka, Head of R&D, Moravian Library, Czech Republic

12:40   LUNCH

Early afternoon session Chair: Dave Thompson, Digital Curator, Wellcome Library

13:40   JP2K for preservation and access, experiences from the National Library of Norway

Svein Arne Brygfjeld, National Library of Norway

14:10   Practical usage of JP2 files with presentational web interface

Sasa Mutic, General Director, Geneza and Ivo Iossiger, General Director, 4DigitalBooks, Switzerland

14:40   JPEG 2000 for long-term preservation in practice: problems, challenges and possible solutions

Johan van der Knijff, Koninklijke Bibliotheek (NL)

15:10   Coffee

Late afternoon session Chair: Simon Tanner, Director, Kings Digital Consultancy Service

15:40   Delivering High-Resolution JPEG2000 Images and Documents over the Internet

Gary Hodkinson, MD of Luratech Ltd.

16:10   Pros and Cons of JPEG 2000 for video archiving

Katty Van Mele, IntoPIX

16:40   Questions and discussion

Moderated by Ben Gilbert, Photographer, Wellcome Library

17:10   Concluding remarks